Students have the option of conducting an independent study project in any academic area of the Baker Program in Real Estate. The number of credit hours for such a project will be arranged on an individual basis. Note that students are committed to a specific number of hours of independent academic work per week per credit hour. This work must be completed in the academic term for which the student has registered for the independent study. The usual add/drop policy applies, and retroactive credit for work is not permitted. Any applications for independent study must be approved by the student’s academic advisor prior to the start of the study or work.

Projects are conducted under the direction of the faculty sponsor, and regular, frequent consultations are expected.

Academic credit may not be earned for independent study when the equivalent material is offered in a regular course. Credit cannot be earned for teaching assistant work.

I am aware of and understand the above regulations and responsibilities regarding independent study.
